

Who are the Jaycees?

The Jaycees (Junior Chamber of Commerce), a civic organization comprised of men and women who join together to improve their communities, provide leadership training through community activism and empower young people to effect positive change. The Individual Development area sets the Junior Chamber apart from other organizations: while many other groups offer community service and social activities, Jaycees chapters offer opportunities for self-improvement. By chairing a local project, a young person can practice organization, delegation, time and resource management, public relations and motivational skills. The Jaycees also offer training programs, usually at no cost to the member, that teach these skills. Even if a project does not meet its goals, chairperson(s) and committee members learn from the experience: this is the success of the chapter.

Active in the Foxboro community since 1961, the Foxboro Jaycees are a dynamic, enthusiastic volunteer organization dedicated to enhancing quality of life through community development projects while growing the skills of our members and providing an opportunity to make lifelong friendships. The Jaycees provide civic service through the organized efforts of the people of the community and promote the welfare of Foxboro and its citizens through active, constructive projects.

The Jaycees build community relationships and forge friendships while developing managerial, project, and people skills. Most importantly, the Jaycees make our community better!

Foxboro Jaycees Scholarship in Memory of Fred George, Jr.

The Foxboro Jaycees are pleased to announce a 2019-20 Scholarship Program: a $500 scholarship will be awarded to an individual enrolled in a two or four year college, a technical institute, school of nursing, post graduate school or other accredited secondary program who demonstrates a commitment to community service.

Long time member of the Jaycees, Fred George, Jr. lost his battle to cancer in January 2019. He spent countless hours assisting with Jaycees community projects and embracing leadership roles when needed to do so. We remember him fondly as a loving father with a big heart, a wonderful role model who embodied Jaycees values. We are honored to present this scholarship in his memory.

Part 4:

The Jaycees Creed, adopted in 1946 by C. William Brownfield in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, concludes with a powerful statement: "service to humanity is the best work of life." Brownfield explained his inspiration for this line: "The life lived unselfishly grows richer, deeper, and fuller. Joy is more enduring and peace of mind, more certain. The world looks at the contribution such a life has made and marks the one who lived it as a benefactor of the race; yet he knows in truth the greater benefit has been his own."

Please choose one of the following topics and write a short essay to share your insights about community service.

- A. Please tell us about a community service project with which you have been involved, including the impact you believe you had on the community, and the impact of the project on you personally.
- B. Describe how you see public service fitting in into your life while in college and after you graduate.
- C. You are a member of a service organization which raises $1,000.00 to be used within your community. You are in charge of determining how the funds will be spent. What is your recommendation to the organization and how did you reach that conclusion?

Part 5:

Educational History (list or attach a resume)

Part 6:
